OBSERVANCE OF PAY-UP WEEK

Cards, Pennants, Poster Stamps,
Circulars, Etc., Will Be Used
In Large Numbers.

The various supplies to be used in promoting the Pay-Up Week which will be observed here have arrived and Mr. John S. Frazer, Secretary of the Business Men's Club, who has the matter in charge, has been busy distributing same.

There are all sorts of propositions to enlist public interest and concert of action in the line of the common good, but we have not heard of a better one for everybody than one now being barked by an association devoted to the business interests of the country, which proposes to try to establish on a country-wide basis what it terms a "National Pay-Up Week." Of course, the observance of such a week would be voluntary and in no sense compulsory, and its success would depend upon enlisting co-operation in every section by advertising and agitation to arouse the people of any given section to the benefits to be derived from a week of general paying up of bills and standing accounts.

No matter what week should be designated for Pay-Up Week, allowing bills could not, if they would, join in its observance, but if it had the result of overcoming the inertia of any considerable percentage of those owing bills, payment of which is delayed by mere neglect and indifference, the debt paying observance would make Pay-Up Week the most blessed week of the year in the benefits it would bring debtor as well as creditor. It is very seldom that a man owes bills to others and has none due to him, and, if all who could, would pay during Pay-Up Week it would operate to break a business deadlock in the debt and credit system of a community and the squaring of accounts resulting would bring about magical results of benefit to all classes.

In fact, the dragging of accounts that might easily enough be paid, where, in nine cases out of ten, the debts are allowed to drag through inattention and neglect, is generally the most serious burden, not alone individuals but communities have to sustain.

All are poor, in a sense, and all are hindered and handicapped, not because those who owe bills cannot but because they will not liquidate the bills they owe.

The Pay-Up Week proposition is based on the assumption that a stirring campaign to make such a week a real Pay-Up Week is as sound as any other campaign to arouse public action. It is just as sound, for instance, as a well-planned religious revival, and the converts it makes are converts to the best kind of practical religion. It has in it the very essence indeed of the Golden Rule, which is the corner stone of any religious system.

The National Association of Merchants Trade Journal Readers, which has this beneficent scheme up its sleeve, an organization of nationwide prominence, names February 21-26, inclusive, as Pay-Up Week.

We only hope the campaign may be successful here where credit in capital letters fit for a circus poster is the rather unhappy distinguishing feature of the business situation.

COURTS TO PASS ON ACT OF 1914

Putting Commission Form Into Effect Here Two Years Earlier Than Old Law.

For some time a rumor has been going the rounds to the effect that those who opposed the county commission form of government contemplated attacking the constitutionality of the act of the Legislature of 1914, whereby the will of our people, expressed by a majority of over one thousand, was put into effect Jan. 1, 1916 instead of waiting until Jan. 1, 1918 as was provided by the old law. This law was prepared by a committee of lawyers from the Louisville Commercial Club, the counties of Jefferson, Meade and Bell, like Montgomery county, abolished their fiscal courts as composed of Magistrates. It was introduced by Senator J. Will Clay at the last session and aroused the ire of the Louisville Magistrates to such an extent that it was soon seen the bill had no chance to pass. Our then Representative, Hon. John A. Judy, realizing this fact introduced a bill in the House following the language of the Clay bill, but applying to counties containing a city of the fourth class only and this bill was unanimously adopted by both Houses and subsequently approved by Governor McCreary. It is this law, now section 1851a, Kentucky Statutes, that is to be attacked.

It is understood that a suit will be brought by a Magistrate upon the ground that the Fiscal Court must be composed of Magistrates until the end of their present term of office and that the Act depriving them of membership on that court is a violation of their legal rights and unconstitutional.

It is claimed by the present Commissioners, who will fight the case to the bitter end, that the law is not unconstitutional, that is, does not abolish the office of Magistrate, but merely curtails the authority of that office, which it is claimed the Legislature has a legal right to do as regards any office, whether it be to add to or take from its duties.

The net result of the suit will be that if the law is declared unconstitutional, we will be just where we would have been had the act not passed and in the same condition Jefferson, Meade and Bell counties now are; namely, the Magistrates will hold on until Jan. 1, 1918 when they will be succeeded by Commissioners. The Commissioners are O. W. McCormick, C. L. Dean and A. L. Tipton, who since Jan. 1, 1916 (some seven weeks) have administered the affairs of the county at a saving to the taxpayers of not less than $500. They receive very little for their services, yet anticipating the suit above referred to, they have already employed counsel and will make a determined fight to sustain the Judy bill, believing this course is their duty to the people. It is also possible that a friendly suit may at once be filed in order that the legality of their acts may be settled.

If the courts should hold that the commission form of government does not go into effect until Jan. 1, 1918, the Fiscal Court would be composed of the following Magistrates: R. F. Moore (who succeeded O. W. McCormick as Magistrate), W. D. Henry, Clay G. Fogg (who succeeded C. L. Dean as Magistrate), Dan Welch (who succeeded T. C. Quisenberry, resigned), Mart Wells and Frank P. Boyd, with Judge W. O. Chenaault as presiding officer in either event.

Last year Mr. Strother had considerable trouble in securing cars for his customers but this year he is prepared as he has several cars already in stock and can make delivery at present without any delay. There are more Ford cars in this city and county than any other make.

FARM SELLS CHEAP

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Rice sold their farm Friday at public auction for $76.50 per acre. There is 98 acres in the tract and is improved. The farm, which lies in the Sideview neighborhood, is a fine one and is considered a rare bargain at the price. Dr. L. Henry, of North Middletown, was the purchaser. We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Rice are contemplating locating in the South. They are well known here where they have many relatives and friends who will regret to see them leave.

CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE MEETS

The Chautauqua Circle held an interesting and enjoyable session with Mrs. J. J. Walsh, on Sycamore street Friday afternoon and there was a good attendance. Bassett.

SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Julia Ewing Owings, Wife of
Mr. Joshua Owings, Sr., Passed Away Saturday.

After an illness of several weeks duration Mrs. Julia Ewing Owings, aged 72 years, wife of Mr. Joshua Owings, died at the family home, on the Owingsville pike Saturday night, of lobar pneumonia.

She was a daughter of the late A. J. Ewing, of Bath county, and a member of one of the most prominent families in this section of the State. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. J. Lawrence White, Mrs. C. R. Prewitt, Miss Mattie Owings, Jack, Rezin and Joshua, Jr., all of this county. Five sisters also survive Mrs. Owings, as follows: Mrs. Nettie Poyntz, of Richmond; Mrs. Jesse Turney, of Paris; Mrs. Edward Gaitskill, of Winchester; Mrs. Elva Cutlett, of Owingsville, and Mrs. James W. Gatewood, of the county.

She had been a member of the Springfield Presbyterian church for many years and was greatly interested in church work, and her many acts of kindness and charity to those in sickness and distress will live long in their memories. Those who have gone down into the valley of suffering and stood for months by the side of a loved one, no hope after hope dropped away as the petals fall from a fading flower, know that such anguish cannot find solace in the tenderest words. She who has gone forth could not be supported on her solitary path by any earthly friend.

Well may her children cherish her memory as a precious legacy and we faint would say a word for comfort to the stricken ones; we can but let our tears flow in sympathy with theirs and point them to the promise, "At eventide it shall be light."

Funeral services conducted by Rev. M. V. P. Yeaman, were held Monday morning at ten o'clock with burial in Muehlpeh cemetery. The Advocate tenders sympathy to the bereaved family.

QUICK ACTION

The Pieratt bill changing the terms of court in this judicial district has been unanimously adopted by the House and it is thought will undoubtedly pass the Senate. Under it the Circuit Court terms are arranged with a view of being more convenient for the farmers.

During a recent "Pay-Up Week" at Waukon, Iowa, more than $50,000 changed hands and settled indebtedness of various kinds. Everybody hunted up everybody they owed money to and settled up. National Pay-Up Week will be observed here February 21-26. That will be a fine time to pay up those different accounts—"wipe the slate clean."

All the students, patrons and friends of the schools are cordially invited to attend this address and are assured of a most delightful and helpful lecture. Dr. Crossfield is well known in Mt. Sterling and no doubt will receive a hearty welcome.

Quite a good crowd enjoyed the recital given by Nelson Weedon, pipe organist, and Miss Martha Mary Moore, soprano, both of Ashland, in this city Friday evening.

WILL MAKE SEASON HERE

J. Malcolm Forbes, the great stallion owned by Mr. James R. Magowan will make the season of 1916 at the Fair Grounds in this city at a fee of $200.00 to insure a live foal. He is the sire of the half mile yearling champion, U. Forbes and many other good ones.

WANT GAS SERVICE

Progressive citizens of the Levee have requested the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company to tap its line running near that village in order that they may be supplied with natural gas. We see no reason why they should not have this service and hope the company can see proper to grant their request.

FOR THE MERCHANT'S EYE

At a meeting of the American Advertisers Association, Arthur Brisbane said: "Not the country publisher but the business man is the chief sufferer from the fact that our merchants and manufacturers have not utilized the country newspaper's advertising columns as they should and can be utilized. Remember these facts: He who reads the little crossroads newspaper of the fair-sized town is a man who buys everything. He lives in a house and on land that he owns. He is interested in everything that the business men are doing. Through good advertising you can sell him everything, from the paint on the roof of his house to the cement on the floor of his cellar. Everything between the roof and the cellar, everything in the barn, and every tool in the field he buys and you may sell him. He is not like the dweller in the big flat, who gets his water through a pipe, his light through a wire, his heat from the basement, and whose shopping consists in getting a ready-made dinner in a tin or paper box. The man who reads the country newspaper buys everything. He buys pumps, lamps, stoves, automobiles, clothing, dresses, hooks and paints, farm implements, furniture, carpets, oils. In this room are 250 men and individuals. Some of them represent a dozen manufacturing enterprises and more. There isn't a man here who has anything to sell that he can not sell to the readers of a country newspaper. And every man here could more profitably advertise in a country newspaper in proportion to its circulation than in any other publication on earth. I emphasize the value of the country newspaper as an advertising medium, for it has that value."

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. WILL GET YOU SURE

No "pipe dream" about this. You may put it in your pipe and smoke it: The real goblin that will get you if you don't watch out is the great big Mail Order goblin. This goblin has got the hulk of the business in many communities. Do not let it ruin our community. It is the greatest detriment and in the end will be the means of lowering property value. If you are loyal to your home town you will patronize your home merchant.

Of course we are all subject to certain lapses of memory, but that is one subject close to hearts which should never be lost sight of for one single moment. That is good roads—better roads for this community. Think it over—talk it over—push it along with every breath of life. We want better country roads.

THE COUNTRY WEEKLY IS GROWING BETTER

The latest newspaper statistics show that there are 148 publications less in the United States today than there were last year at this time. These statistics also claim that the greatest mortality among publications has been in the field of the weeklies.

Some may construe this as an ill omen and assert that the day of the country weekly has passed. Of course such a statement is absurd on the face of it, as the number of healthy and wealthy country weeklies now flourishing will testify without further argument.

What the figures do show, however, is that the newspaper which is conducted without good business methods cannot thrive. Methods and adherence to strict business principles are the foundation stones upon which success is built in every business nowadays, and this applies to the newspaper business more than to any other.

Furthermore, the decrease in the quantity of weeklies published means that "any old thing" won't do. Quality is what is desired, not quantity. And if there are fewer weeklies of the kind that are slipshod so much the better for those that are conducted in the right way.

The country weekly will never die. It has its well appointed place in the affairs of the American people. On the contrary, the country weekly, particularly the all home print country weekly, is growing greater in the estimation of newspaper readers from day to day. It is the chaff that is falling by the wayside.—The American Press.

THE NEWSPAPER

A newspaper is in no sense a child of charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives, and it is second to no enterprise in contributing to the upbuilding of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published, it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it, though generally it receives less.

It has been said that from the same materials one builds palaces, another hovels; one warehouses, another villages; bricks and mortar are mortar and bricks until the architect makes them something else. The block of granite which was an obstacle in the path of the weak becomes a stepping stone in the pathway of the resolute. AN EVIDENCE OF BRAINS

Men of today are judged almost as much by their appearances as they are by their acts, and in no case is this fact more self evident than in the matter of correspondence.

Years ago brawn was the chief asset of the farmer. Today it is brains. Then the farmer could write a letter on any old kind of paper and it would pass muster. Now he must have his printed stationery if he would take his proper place among the successful and brainy men of the day.

A few years ago a printed letterhead for the farmer was a thing for the museum. Today it is a common necessity and is found in every section of this broad land.

It is an evidence of the advanced brain power of the American farmer of today, the farmer of tomorrow, and of the future.

Neatly printed stationery instantly commands the attention and respect of everybody, for it bespeaks progress on the part of the one who uses it.

But it serves yet another and equally important purpose. It prevents errors in the misdirection of letters, in the faulty spelling of names, in the confusion of an employee with the head of the farm.

For the average general farmer the accepted form of letterheads is as follows:

James T. Alexander

R. R. No. 5.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.

This should be printed in plain black type at the top of the page, and when letter paper of this kind is used there is no possibility of the misdirection of mail. The same could be printed in the upper left hand corner of the envelope, thus insuring the return of a letter in case of non-delivery.

The same kind of stationery is used by men in the great cities for private correspondence not related to their business affairs.

Since the farmers of this community are up to date in other respects, they should not be behind their brothers elsewhere in the matter of their stationery.

Every farmer should have his own printed stationery, for it will operate as an evidence to others at a distance of the brains and foresight which we of this community know that our farmers possess.

The farmers of this community lead in other respects, and it can easily be so in this at no greater expense than the old method of buying 25 cents worth of white paper and envelopes at a time.

DO YOU SUPPORT ANY YOUR HOME ENTERPRISES

Do you borrow your neighbor's paper—that is, the local county paper—and refuse to subscribe for it merely because it will cost you the pittance of 2 cents per week? If you do, then ask yourself the question if you are not somewhat wrong in your view of life and its obligations if you cannot contribute as little as 2 cents per week toward the support of a home enterprise—the only one, by the way, that identifies you and the town in which you live to the world at large.

Then, after you have thus thought over the matter, take up the matter of public and personal convenience and if you still find the local paper unworthy of your support, go to your neighbor and have him make certain social or society announcements, and see if he will do the job gratis and get you the results the newspaper will. Then, after doing all this, if you do not feel it your duty as well as privilege to support the local paper, then register a wish that you are dead to the world and the newspaper will, by its silence regarding you and the things you desire, and you to have your wish come true.

A few people know of the wise man's wisdom, but everybody knows of the fool's foolishness.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Caron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

Some unknown miscreant destroyed three moonshine stills the other night. Brethren this lawlessness must cease.

A holiday party of seven widows came by parcel post Tuesday, and all the old bachelors have left town.

The Fathers of the community have handed over their bank books to their families and are now as poor, personally, as the Lord would have them be.

The mail carrier says he will be compelled to add another mule to his team if Jack Dashner keeps on sending to Chicago for free catalogs.

Leonard Boulton has built himself a new house on Moonshine Ridge just east of the old one he has been living in for several years. With a little improvement the old one will make a good stable.

Following disappointment over the continued wet weather, J. F. Cross took his domesticated rain crow down to the creek and drowned it. The people will now have to depend entirely on Larry Rinaldo's corns and rheumatism for their weather indications.

Professor H. C. Denton, who has taught so many successful terms at the Coon Holler school house, has closed his school for the winter and yesterday removed his spectacles for the first time in six months. He was surprised at the many improvements that have been made since the last time he put them on.

Miss Margaret Sisley has returned to Snagtown after an absence of two years in Belgium, Oklahoma.

She covers up her age so well she looks no older than she did ten years ago.

Jack Goodine fell into the creek at Rattlesnake Ford Sunday and all that prevented him from going under for the last time were the two empty quart bottles in his hip pocket. The preacher says if he had not emptied the bottles he would not have fallen in.

Dell Hagaboom, after several years' study with roots and herbs, has perfected a remedy for the removal of dandruff. The remedy is in the form of an ointment or salve, is rubbed on the head, and at once begins to thin out the hair, until the patient becomes bald-headed. After this the dandruff is left exposed to the sun and the dandruff disappears. It will also remove corns and whiskers.

A deaf man visited Snagtown Saturday. He stood around the postoffice for a while and the postmaster got the funnel and made an unsuccessful attempt to find out the man's business in this section.

Sometimes a person has an idea that he has an idea when really he hasn't.

LOOK YOURSELF OVER

It is so easy to criticize one's neighbor who has gone wrong in morals, or made a failure in business, and so hard to give credit for the effect of the influences impelling him to disaster, over which he has no control, that our criticism of others is often very uncharitable. Men often say how good they have been, or what they would have accomplished had they been in the other man's place. They do not stop to ask why the fellow that was in the other shoes did not succeed. If they did they would often find the man who went wrong, or who failed, was entitled to great credit for standing up so bravely under forces and burdens that might easily have overthrown his accusers. Sometimes the man who fails is a greater hero than another who wins.

Some men inherit power, others acquire it, and upon some it is conferred. But mighty few are able to hang on to it.

MOTHER TELLS HOW VINOL

Made Her Delicate Boy Strong

New York City.—"My little boy was in a very weak, delicate condition as a result of gastritis and the measles and there seemed no hope of saving his life. The doctor prescribed cod liver oil but he could not take it. I decided to try Vinol—and with splendid results. It seemed to agree with him so that now he is a strong healthy boy."—Mrs. THOMAS FITZGERALD, 1090 Park Ave., N. Y. City.

We guarantee Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, for run-down conditions, chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis.

TIME TO GET BUSY

The present session of the Legislature is more than half over, yet, if we are correctly informed, but one bill—the anti-pass law—has been enacted by both Houses and it, we have been advised by a number of lawyers, is unconstitutional, for many reasons. A session of the Legislature costs the taxpayers something like $1,500 a day, hence it would seem they could occupy their attention more profitably than by endeavoring to change ground hog day, etc. Not that we think by any means that a session's usefulness is to be measured by the number of laws enacted. We now have entirely too many laws—probably fifty per cent. of them half-baked and unnecessary. What we need most is a sane revenue bill and an act to put into effect the will of the people relative to convict labor on roads. Kentucky has a two million dollar debt, which is hourly growing and instead of villifying each other and idling the people's time away, it seems to us there is much constructive work that could be done; but we suppose this is asking entirely too much of a Kentucky Legislature.

The Republican party seems to be in a bad fix. Mr. Roosevelt has made it plain that if he is not given the nomination, he will again defeat the ticket, while if he is the nominee, Mr. Wilson, will take his measure.

What a pity it is we haven't more men in the Legislature like Representative Pieratt of Montgomery county, Harvey of Webster county and Greene of Carroll county.

The best service Representative Pumphrey could render the State would be by following the example of the late Secretary of War.

The Stanley Excise Bill died between two days. 'Tis well.

PAY UP WEEK

February 21 to 26, inclusive, will be Pay Up Week all over this country, and every citizen is presumed to walk in to his creditors and square up his accounts. The good citizen will do this if it is within the bounds of reasonable possibility. The man who fails to square up because he doesn't care is not worthy of further credit and should not receive it. Business men are not allowed by their creditors to wait until Feb. 21 to 26. They must forward their checks every thirty days or their credit is shut off. It therefore becomes a great hardship to the business man when he is compelled to pay his own bills promptly and yet is required to carry the accounts of hundreds of people for indefinite periods. We have a lot of faith in our people and we believe they will walk right up and square their little accounts before the 21st and the 26th, and we don't for one minute think they will forget the editor in their rounds. We have faith that this will be one time when they will not forget to think.

It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly upon the mucous surface. DO NOT BE A FAILURE

Young man! Young woman! Don't let your lives be failures. Make the best of what God has given you. Let your gratitude to Him for life and its noble endowments, be exerted in a full devotion of will, and thought, and strength, to whatever work He brings in His wise providence to your hand. And remember, that it is only good and useful work that He provides. Shun evil work—work that harms your neighbor in any way, as you would shun the deadliest thing. No true success ever comes from evil work. It may bring a harvest of golden apples and purple grapes; but the apples will be like those of Sodom, full of bitter ashes and grapes sour.

ANOTHER TAX ON DIAMONDS

Export Tax on Rough of 10 Per Cent to be Imposed by Union of South Africa.

(From the African World, London.) It is understood from a cable received from South Africa that on the reopening of Parliament an export duty of 10 per cent at least on rough diamonds will form one of the proposals for the raising of fresh taxes. "From inquiries made in trade circles," says the Financial News, "we gather on reliable authority that such a tax will not interfere with business, and that now is the proper moment to impose it, as by the time the mines are in full swing again such tax will have regulated itself as far as new production is concerned."

"Some of our correspondents even go so far as to point out," continues our contemporary, "that the amount of this tax could be more than recovered by a rise in common and industrial diamonds, which, on the face of it, are being sold at prices quite out of proportion to the finer qualities; and they argue that there is no reason why such industrial diamonds should not be double and treble the price they are now. It must, after all, be borne in mind that the diamonds that can be annually absorbed in normal times can only be reckoned in amount and not in quantity. As our readers are aware, this amount is, roughly speaking, 12,000,000 lb. sterling, and the addition of 10 per cent or 15 per cent in taxation will not mean that the companies will be able to sell an extra proportion of diamonds; consequently, they must produce fewer stones and charge correspondingly higher prices to balance matters."

"Now," it concludes, "the industrial and common goods to which our correspondents refer constitute about 2 per cent of the total production of the mines, and there is no reason why these sorts which are low-priced should not be raised as suggested, to twice or three times present rates, and yet be freely absorbed. The finer qualities, however, are at such a level already that an extra 10 per cent or even 15 per cent would not make any material difference as far as the capacity of the market to absorb them is concerned."

Everybody's going to pay everybody else—"Pass prosperity around" the week of February 21-26. That is the official date of National Pay-Up Week. There will probably be considerable money change hands during National Pay-Up Week, to be observed here February 21-26. That is the week everybody is to pay everybody else.

Hilary E. Howse was ousted from his office as Mayor of Nashville and Robert Elliott was retained in his office as Commissioner of Waterworks by a decision of the Tennessee Supreme Court. Howse admitted most of the charges.

SOLD FOR BIG PRICE

Peter the Great, the world famous stallion owned by W. E. D. Stokes, of Putehen Wilkes Farm, Fayette county, was sold last week to Mr. Stoughton Fletcher, of Indianapolis, Ind., for $50,000. He is the sire of the great Peter Volo.

It is said he will be kept at Pateben Wilkes farm this season.

CORRESPONDENCE

Stoops.

(By B. M. Goodan)

The tobacco crop has finally been stripped and this week the marketing will be completed.

Mrs. S. F. Deal is able to be out again after a severe spell of grip. Geo. O. Fissett who recently went to Weston, Mo., has joined the U. S. Navy.

It is reported that one of our prominent young men is conducting a considerable "sparkship" in another vicinity and we fear that something is going to happen ere long.

Born—Feb. 4th., to the wife of Oda Orme, a daughter—Mary Florence.

John Kesling and family will go March 1st to Illinois to reside.

Ora Rankin and wife, of Bourbon county, were visitors here the first of last week.

We notice a bill has been introduced in the Legislature to change Groundhog Day from Feb. 2nd. to July 4th. It is to be hoped that if the Legislature does nothing else, it will pass this piece of "important legislation."

Jas. O. Spratt and wife, of Sharpsburg, will move here in a few days to reside.

Bert Sanders visited his parents at Bald Eagle last week.

Thos. W. Fassetts has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Hood Thompson, at Salt Lick.

Thursday evening while Geo. Dunaway was cutting wood, a chip struck him in the left eye inflicting a serious wound. It was feared loss of sight would result, but such will not be.

Several from here attended Owingsville Court Monday.

Sherman Hamilton went Saturday to visit relatives at Sharpsburg.

Leslie Sorrell, who has been here the past three months, will go this week to his home at Weston, Mo.

It is with regret that we learn that Thos. B. Hamilton has sold his holdings here and has purchased a farm in Woodford county, where he will go on March 1st to reside. Tom is one of our best citizens and will be badly missed.

Sweet potatoes at Vanarsdell's.

ASK STATE AID

At a meeting of the Fiscal Court held Saturday a resolution was unanimously adopted asking state aid in the maximum sum of twelve thousand dollars, to be used this year in the completion of the state aid work not finished last year on the Mt. Sterling and Owingsville turnpike, bringing same to the city limits; on the Camargo and Jeffersonville turnpike from the city limits to Jeffersonville; on the Mt. Sterling and Paris turnpike from the Bourbon county line to the Maysville turnpike and on the Winchester pike from the Clark county line to the city limits.

If the request is granted by the State Highway Department work will be begun just as quickly as the weather will permit and will be under the supervision of County Commissioner A. L. Tipton and County Road Engineer W. F. Crooks.

GARRISON AND BRECKINRIDGE RESIGN

Lindley M. Garrison, Secretary of War, resigned his portfolio Thursday because President Wilson would not "irrevocably" support the continental army plan and because he opposes the administration's program of setting a definite time for Philippine independence. President Wilson accepted the resignation. The President himself probably will take personal charge of the administration's defense plan in Congress. Assistant Secretary Henry Breckinridge also resigned as a mark of loyalty to his chief, whose views he shared.

Why that strange, pleased smile everybody is wearing? Just thinking of the fun we are all going to have paying up our bills during National Pay-Up Week, February 21-26—"Puss Prosperity Around," as it were.

They Are All Talking High —Prices But Us—

GOODS OF ALL KINDS HAVE ADVANCED BUT

our prices are the same as usual.
We are able to hold the old prices on everything

You will ask how are they able to sell goods at the old prices when all the others have been forced to push their prices way up. There's bound to be a reason. Here's the whole thing in a nutshell. We carry on hand the most complete and largest line of goods in Central Kentucky. In addition to this we protected ourselves months ago on every line of spring merchandise that showed a possibility of rising in price. Having this large stock of goods on hand and having placed all spring orders early, we are able to hold same old prices on everything.

You will find this to be the situation.
This is a statement of facts just as they are. Goods are higher, but
